

Train to Enforce Seminar.

Friday, 26. November 10⁰⁰ - 18⁰⁰

Online via Zoom

Application Deadline

Friday, 12. November at train2en4ce@jura.uni-hannover.de

Topic: The Regulations No 1896/2006 and No 861/2007 of the European Parliament and of the Council.

The free seminar about the European Order on Payment Procedures and the European Small Claims Procedure is designed for everyone working in the legal profession, e.g. lawyers, judges, clerks, and court officers.

„Creating a simple, uniform, time-saving and efficient instrument for the recovery and enforcement of uncontested monetary claims in the European Union.“

Background.

The seminar is offered as part of the EU project Train to Enforce by the Institute for Procedural and Attorney Law (IPA) of Leibniz Universität Hannover in coordination with the other participating faculties.

The Train to Enforce project aims to improve knowledge of the EU instruments for cross-border debt collection, in particular the European Small Claims Procedure (Regulation No. 861/2007) and the European Order for Payment Procedure (Regulation No. 1896/2006).

The project is coordinated by the Faculty of Law of the University of Maribor (Slovenia); besides Hannover, the law faculties of the Universities of Coruña (Spain), Graz (Austria), Rijeka (Croatia), Tirana (Albania), Trieste (Italy) and Uppsala (Sweden) are involved as partners.

The Train 2 EN4CE Project is being funded by the European Union's Justice Programme (2014-2020)

Agenda.

European Order for Payment Procedure

European Small Claims Procedure

Discussion

Legal Terminology

Discussion

Speakers.

This seminar will be conducted by Dr. Petrina Broka and Dr. Silvana Çinari, both lecturers of Civil Procedure Law from University of Tirana (Albania) as well as Professor Dr. Christian Wolf, who is head of the Institute for Procedural Law and Attorney Regulations and holds the chair for Civil Law, German, European, and International Civil Procedure, and Dipl.-Jur. Lissa Gerking, research assistant, from Leibniz Universität Hannover (Germany).

IPA Institute for Procedural Law and Attorney Regulations